

Centre of Chinese & Southeast Asian Studies,
School of Language Literature & Cultural Studies,
JNU
In Collaboration with
The Institute of Chinese Studies (ICS)

Cordially invites you to a lecture
Followed by discussion
“Cultural Governance in Contemporary China”

Professor Elizabeth Perry
Professor of Government and Director of the Harvard-Yenching Institute

20th March 2013

15.00 Hours

212 SLL&CS COMMITTEE ROOM,

Centre for Chinese and Southeast Asian Studies,
School of Language, Literature and Cultural Studies,
Jawaharlal Nehru University.

Elizabeth J. Perry is Henry Rosovsky Professor of Government and Director of the Harvard-Yenching Institute. She is a comparativist with special expertise in the politics of China. A fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the recipient of a Guggenheim fellowship, she sits on the editorial boards of nearly a dozen major scholarly journals, holds honorary professorships at six Chinese universities, and has served as the President of the Association for Asian Studies. Professor Perry's research focuses on popular protest and grassroots politics in modern and contemporary China. Her books include Rebels and Revolutionaries in North China, 1845-1945 (1980); The Political Economy of Reform in Post-Mao China (1985); Popular Protest and Political Culture in Modern China (1992); Urban Spaces in Contemporary China: The Potential for Autonomy and Community in Chinese Cities (1995); Putting Class in Its Place: Worker Identities in East Asia (1996); Chinese Society: Change, Conflict, and Resistance (2000); Challenging the Mandate of Heaven: Social Protest and State Power in China (2002); Changing Meanings of Citizenship in Modern China (2002); Grassroots Political Reform in Contemporary China (2007); Mao's Invisible Hand: The Political Foundations of Adaptive Governance in China (2011); and Anyuan: Mining China's Revolutionary Tradition (2012).