

Mahima Khosla (马慧玛), M.A. Economics
Research Intern
Institute of Chinese Studies (ICS)
E-mail: mahimakhosla5@gmail.com

AREAS OF INTEREST

Macroeconomics, Econometric techniques, contemporary China and the Mandarin language

CURRENT RESEARCH PROJECTS

Comparative Trend Analysis of Electricity Consumption, GDP and Growth Rate using Panel Data Regression Model of all the Provinces of China.

EDUCATION

Pursuing M.A. Economics, Banaras Hindu University (BHU), Varanasi, India (2014-2016)

B.A. (Hons.) in Economics, Aryabhatta College, Delhi University, Delhi, India (2013)

DELFI A1-Diplome d'Etudes en Langue Francaise from Alliance Francaise de Delhi.

CURRENT & PAST POSITIONS

Protocol Assistant in XIX Common Wealth Games at Siri Fort Auditorium, New Delhi (2010)

Presented Paper entitled "Regression estimation: Comparison between GDP of Developed and Developing Nations" with the Use of MS-Excel Statistical tools. (2011)

Presented Group Project on "Income and Occupational structure of slum areas in Delhi" and with the Use of secondary data and Pre-Census statistical techniques. (2012)

Worked with an NGO Udayan Care as a Volunteer. This involved the task of helping orphaned and abandoned children in academics, developing their communication skills and social skills, organizing workshops for them.

Research Intern (since June 2015), Institute of Chinese Studies ICS, New Delhi. (2015)

AWARDS/HONOURS

Got scholarship through quiz competition from Times of India for Completing Certified course in “Young Learners” from British Council, Barakhamba, New Delhi.

Appreciation for actively contributing in a workshop of “Open Data and Open Development” of World Bank, Organized by Department of Political Science, BHU.

Appointed as a Reader/Writer for Blind Candidates at Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan, INA Colony, New Delhi.

. Computer Skills

Proficient in MS-Word, MS-Excel, V lookup, MS-Power Point, HTML.
Understanding of Statistical Software (STATA)-Basic and SPSS.

LANGUAGES SPOKEN

English, Hindi, Punjabi and French.